TRAILS OF BOTSWANA

PARTICIPATING CAMPS:

XOBEGA ISLAND CAMP

Xobega, or Gcobega, is a secluded, tree-filled island in the waters of the Okavango. Only accessible by boat, this piece of Delta paradise is an adventurer's dream, best suited to groups of friends, or families looking for a unique, and truly tranquil Botswana nature experience. One may call it 'glamping' when considering the spacious Meru-style tents with stretcher beds and solar-powered lighting, while bucket showers and eco-toilets keep things refreshingly low-key. Located among the trees are the dining tent, two lounge gazebos, and a boma.

TUSKERS BUSH CAMP

Tuskers Bush Camp lies between Nxai Pan National Park to the east and Moremi Game Reserve to the west. It encompasses 365 000 hectares of mopane forest and scrub, plus the northern tip of the Botswana Kalahari, making this exclusive tract of land ideal for game drives and walking safaris. 6 Meru-style canvas safari tents are located between the evergreen mopane trees, looking out into the veld and offering guests seclusion and privacy during their stay. The main dining tent, boma, bar, and swimming pool overlook a bustling waterhole.

XAXABA MOBILE CAMP

Xaxaba Mobile Camp is run by Afrika Ecco Safaris from the local Xaxaba community. The camp moves between 3 different locations on the island every few days. It is located on a private island deep within the heart of the Okavango Delta, a world-heritage site renowned for its abundance of wildlife. The island overlooks the famous Chief's Island, and guests will have the opportunity to enjoy walks on this island. There are plenty of activities to enjoy that cater for the adventurous.

CAMP LINYANTI

Camp Linyanti should be visited by anyone passionate about raw Africa and favours safari quality over luxury accommodation. This uncrowded north-western corner of Chobe National Park is a water wonderland which makes it appealing for game viewing as well as game drives. The accommodation at Camp Linyanti sings of traditional safari, blending in with the environment and keeping things simple, yet elegant. There are 5 individual canvas tents, elevated slightly from the ground with stairs leading onto private wooden decks, and up to the interior of these unique, circular tents.

THE LAST HIDDEN EDEN OF THE CHOBE

CAMP SAVUTI

Camp Savuti epitomises the Botswana safari experience. From the abundant game viewing to the authentic, tented accommodation, this is the traditional way to spend time in one of Africa's most superb wildlife regions. 5 authentic canvas tents are subtly hidden among the bush willows, raised on wooden stilts and offering ensuite facilities and outdoor showers. Wooden verandas offer views of the Savuti Channel.

ACCESS TO THE CAMPS ON THE TRAILS OF BOTSWANA CIRCUIT

TUSKERS BUSH CAMP

Tuskers Bush Camp is accessed via a road transfer from Maun Airport, or via a combination of a boat & road transfer from Xobega Island Camp. Essentially Maun Airport serves as the airstrip for Tuskers Bush Camp, so getting between Tuskers Bush Camp and either of Camp Savuti or Camp Linyanti will be via a flight from the Savuti or Saile airstrips to Maun and then a road transfer to Tuskers Bush Camp and vice-versa.

In addition, guests not wanting to road transfer between Xobega and Tuskers, can fly from the Xakanaxa airstrip to Maun and then a road transfer to Tuskers and versa.

XOBEGA ISLAND CAMP

The airstrip used for Xobega Island Camp is the Xakanaxa airstrip. Xobega is accessed via a short road transfer from the airstrip to the Xakanaxa Boat Station (please note that Mboma Boat Station might also be used due to operational reasons) and then a boat transfer to Xobega Island Camp. So guests can fly and boat transfer into Xobega from Maun or they can road & boat transfer from Tuskers to Xobega. If guests overnight in Maun the night before, a combination of a road and boat transfer from Maun via South Gate to Xobega via the Xakanaxa Boat Station is possible.

Please note that guests that fly into Maun on the scheduled flights from Johannesburg & Cape Town are not able to road and boat transfer on the day of arrival, they can only access Xobega in time by flying to the Xakanaxa airstrip. Connecting between Xobega Island Camp and Camp Savuti and Camp Linyanti is done via their airstrips of Xakanaxa, Savuti and Saile respectively.

XAXABA MOBILE CAMP

The airstrip used for Xaxaba Mobile Camp is called Xaxaba, and the camp is only accessible via light aircraft. Therefore, guests coming from Maun, Kasane or any other camp will access the camp via a light air transfer into the Xaxaba airstrip. From there it is a short walk and then a 45-minute boat cruise into camp.

CAMP SAVUTI

On the Trails of Botswana circuit, Camp Savuti is accessed via a light air transfer into the Savuti airstrip. From there it is a short road transfer into camp. To get between Camp Savuti and Kasane and/or Maun would be via a flight, in addition to between Xobega and Camp Savuti.

To move between Camp Savuti and Tuskers will be a flight to or from Maun and a road transfer to or from Tuskers Bush Camp. To transfer guests between Camp Savuti and Camp Linyanti. A 2 hour road transfer can be arranged with the camp at an additional cost.

CAMP LINYANTI

On the Trails of Botswana circuit, Camp Linyanti is accessed via a light air transfer into the Saile airstrip. From there it is a road transfer into camp. To get between Camp Linyanti and Kasane and/or Maun would be via a flight, in addition to between Xobega and Camp Linyanti.

To move between Camp Linyanti and Tuskers will be a flight to or from Maun and a road transfer to or from Tuskers Bush Camp. To transfer guests between Camp Linyanti and Camp Savuti. A 2 hour road transfer can be arranged with the camp at an additional cost.
